COMMERCIAL CONVENTION

The Kentucky State Commercial Convention to be held in Louisville May 11th and 12th is a most important step taken in the right direction. No state in the Union has more to gain by concerted action along the lines of commercial development than has the State of Kentucky. Nature gave the state a geographical location that secured for her an early settlement, and by the choicest spot, pioneers that ever had the foundations of an American Commonwealth. Kentucky's remarkable position in American history, her large roll of honored names, including such it does, brilliant stars in every walk of public life, is due solely to the excellent quality of the blood that coursed through the veins of her early settlers. The character of those brave people who blazed their way through Kentucky's forests and chose the ever-famous Blue Grass section for their habitation has justly made it a matter of pride to be a native of the state or even a citizen by adoption.

The peculiar location of the state, however, has operated against her commercial development. Hemmed in as she is by mountain ranges and big rivers, the path of commercial development from the East to the West passed north of Kentucky, and from the East to the South, to the east of the state, thus leaving Kentucky to a great extent out of the great "backbone" that built up the West and in late years has transformed the commercial aspect of the South. Added to these natural causes, may be the facts that the Blue Grass portion of the state has been neglected by agricultural, while those parts of the state, especially adapted to manufacturing and mineral development, have been almost inaccessible until the last few years. These latter facts produced sparsely in the Bluegrass region and despair almost everywhere else in the state.

Kentucky has, however, thoroughly awakened to the fact that she is one of the richest states in the whole Union, not alone in fertile soil, but those natural resources of coal, timber, clay, etc., that go to make up the raw material used in manufacturing. Railroads have been built, undreamed of coal mines have been developed, and the state's vast timber resources have been liberally drawn upon. Cities and towns have sprung up, furnace and steel plants have been built, with the minor industries that follow such large plants. In fact Kentucky can truly be said to have entered upon a prosperous career of manufacturing development.

Much, however, remains to be done. No concerted effort has yet been made to bring the wonderful resources of the state before the investing public. The attitude of the state towards new commercial enterprises has not been of that hearty and cordial nature that is calculated to attract the home-seeker and investor. The idea, has gone forth, unwittingly it is true, that the outposts of the state do not meet the enthusiastic welcome in this state that he does even in some states farther to the South.

For these reasons we believe the coming Commercial Convention at Louisville is a move in exactly the right direction. While, perhaps, the immediate results will be most particularly to the advantage of the city of Louisville, the Convention cannot help but be of vast importance to the State. What benefits Louisville must benefit the State at large. Every new manufacturing plant located in Louisville but increases the demand for the agricultural, mineral or timber products of the State. Furthermore, every new plant located in Louisville turns the eyes of the investing world not only to Louisville, but to the whole State. Louisville is the commercial center of Kentucky. The whole State should take a livable and an enthusiastic pride in her growth and development. Louisville's prosperity cannot be contagious, and we would hail with unfeigned pleasure the day that she becomes the commercial metropolis of the whole Southwest. The Commercial Convention should also be of great ultimate advantage to Paducah. This city has unrivaled advantages in all lines that go to make a successful manufacturing and commercial city. As a location for manufacturing enterprises she is unsurpassed. There is hardly a manufacturing enterprise in the whole state that could not have prospered here with equal success. We look for the coming Commercial Convention to impart some of its enthusiasm to the business men and property holders of Paducah and that she will become in fact what she is entitled to be by reason of her many advantages resultant from her splendid location,—not only the pride of the Purchase, but one of the Queen cities of the South.

McKINLEY A STATESMAN.

New York Herald (Independent).
The tone of the President's message is warlike, but conclusions are peaceful. All things considered, the President has taken a step for peace. He stands with a drawn sword. It is for Spain to say whether the blow shall fall.

While peace hangs on the horizon, no matter how low we must do homage to peace. We cannot fight an unjust or hasty war. First use all means to conciliate. Failing in that, all means to crush. The nations speak the voice of humanity. As one of the brotherhood of nations we at least must pause and heed.

To have declared war, to have whirled a proud, martial, angry people into war, to have precipitated, like Polk, a policy making war inevitable, would have been a blunder. Let us applaud the courage which dared to stand erect and not bow to the passing whirlwind of unreason. War, however truculent, is always accepted. It appeals to a dominant character will bring the wisdom that can see through the storm-swept heavens in their darkest hour and the courage to still point the way to justice, humanity and peace.

The Owensboro Confederate Veterans Association informed General Fitzhugh Lee and announced their loyalty to the government, and that has happened right under the nose of the Owensboro Messenger, the only paper that we have thus far heard from that has so far forgotten all semblance of decency as to cast a slur upon the honored name of General Fitzhugh Lee.

"I think no circumstances will the Democratic party take up Gen. Lee's gold bug, for President?" exclaimed an excited organ of Mr. Bryan. And that is exactly the situation. If you want to damn a man in the eyes of the free silver monopoly, whatever his services to his country or his innate ability may be, just say that he is a gold bug.

THE COMMANDER OF THE ARMY.

Gen. Miles' record is that of an exceptionally gallant and able soldier. With the single exception of Gettysburg, General Miles participated in every battle of the Army of the Potomac from Yorktown to the surrender at Appomattox. Court House, from September, 1862, until the close of the war he commanded in battle his regiment, brigade, division, and for a short time the army corps to which he belonged, having been wounded four times. He was perhaps engaged in more hard-fought battles than any other general officer of our army, including thirty-five distinct battles, and over 100 serious affairs in which artillery, cavalry and infantry were engaged.

MARRIED AT METROPOLIS.

The wedding of Miss Madeleine Perry to George U. N. E. Brewster, the latter of Detroit, Mich., will take place at Metropolis Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, and will be one of the most ostentatious weddings ever held there. The bride to be is well known in Paducah, and formerly resided here for several months. The groom is one of the most prominent lawyers in Michigan, and has been on the supreme bench. He is a very wealthy man and his present to his bride was a $2,000 set of diamonds. The bride's trousseau was made by Worth, of Paris.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Section 10 of ordinance 30 provides that refuse from market and all other fifth and offal in the city of Paducah shall be deposited in the current of the Ohio river not less than twenty feet from the water's edge at the foot of Clay street and not elsewhere. A penalty of not less than $10 nor more than $100 is prescribed for any violation of these provisions.

The above includes decayed fruit or vegetables, trash, waste paper, broom clippings, etc. The falling river invites the customary hauling of trash and litter into the bottoms along the river. I warn all parties against this, under penalty of the above ordinance.

Society Notes.

Mrs. Frank B. Leavitt and family are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Nash on North Ninth street.

Miss Geraldine Sanders is visiting Mrs. Neal Davis in Metropolis.

Friday afternoon the Federal Chapter of the D. A. R. will meet with Mrs. Irene Cox.

Captain Len G. Rouse and wife will arrive tonight from El Paso, Tex., where they have been spending several months for Capt. Rouse's health.

Congress met last night at the Y. M. C. A. The war bill was put before the house.

Miss Neal Davis, of Metropolis is in the city soon to a judge of Detroit, Mich.

The fact now is a William Goat. The goat has taken the place of the "Little Lamb." One of the society girls, however, her name is not Mary, had one of these dear little goats for a pet and she was very fond of it. One day until one day the little thing got into her room, and seeing itself in the mirror, in a folding bed proceeded to demolish the glass, since then the goat has retired to its summer home in the country. Her advice to her companions owning goats is not to let it see itself as others see it.

Mr. Will Foster and wife returned yesterday from their bridal tour.

Mrs. Joe Hart's condition today is unchanged.

Mr. H. Vance Vaughan has returned from Louisville and is quite ill at his home on North Seventh street.

Mrs. Will Perkins, Mrs. Milstead and Miss Bill Yau returned Sunday from Chicago. Mrs. Milstead will soon locate in Memphis.

Among the fifty mountains, and elevated valleys of Santa Fe, the Alpine horns has another use besides that of sounding the far famed "Ranz des Vaches," or cow song, and this of a very solemn and impressive nature. When the sun has set in the valley and the snowy mountains gleam with golden light, the herdsmen who dwell upon the highest summits spot take his horn and pronounce clearly and loudly through it a sound like a speaking trumpet, which is the "Ranz des Vaches." As soon as the sound is heard by the neighboring herdsmen, they issue from their huts, take their Alpine horns and repeat the same words.

CITY COURT

JOTTINGS.

Interesting Session of the Police

Court Today—Judge Sanders—Again Commends the Cow Ordinance.

Marshall Collins Gets a New Term

—Judge Campbell as Prosecutor—Other Police Notes of Interest to Readers.

Judge Sanders took occasion this morning to assert that the present stock law was merely a ploy. He had two cases against well known citizens for allowing their stock to run at large in the city. Both defendants claimed that they knew nothing about their horses being out, and the warrants had to be dismissed. The judge also ventured the opinion that the long lost cow law, was constitutional, and a good law, despite Judge Bishop's decision to the circuit court.

Harry Pike was docketed for malicious cutting, and Guy Randall for being an accessory. The boys had a dispute at North and Clark streets last night, and the Pike boy is charged with slaying James Vance on the hand with a knife furnished by Guy Randall. The boys are said to have been reading chap novels. The case was set for tomorrow morning. The boys are out on bond.

Grandison Moore, colored, was before the court as prosecutor in the case against Mary Talbot. He swore she used such dreadful language that the court forbade him repeating it to the spectators could hear. The attorneys and two principals gathered at the bench, and the naughty words were repeated to the court. The woman left shaking her head in silent remonstrance. She denied it all when called to the stand. It seems that she and the man have been quite good friends and he broke the news gently to her Saturday that he was also a very good friend to her sister. This made her mad, and she said he could not enjoy the blessings of both. This occasioned the trouble, and the warrant was dismissed. The woman was told to go, and not to harm Grandison.

Then there was George McFall, also of color, and he was charged with mistreating his father, whose virtue is not of the most desirable kind. He confessed, and when asked why he hit his father, he said that he would not mind him. No, she was not his wife, he said, but had been living with him since they got out of jail together. It cost him $10 and the trimmings.

John Bell, alias "Jaybird," was acquitted of the charge of using a cotton hook on Berry Hubbard, and released. Hubbard has not been seen since the memorable fray. James Jordan was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness. Sam Moore, a one-legged boot-black, was fined $2 and costs for twisting Jim Pryor's arm, and confiscating his cap. It seems the boot-black asked the boy to go and have a guitar pawned. He was refused a pawn ticket, which made Moore mad. He told Pryor to get back and get the ticket or get his head beat off, and the pawnbroker told him he was too young, and that if he didn't get out he would get his head knocked off. Thus confronted, he could only submit to being despatched, and he preferred that one of his own color do it. Moore attended to the little duty with more or less success.

NEW BOAT.

The Handsome Belle of the Bend, passed Paducah.

The steamer Belle of the Bend, recently completed at Howard's ship yards, passed the local port last night. The stories told of her beauty have not been exaggerated and river-men who were fortunate enough to get a look at her say she is one of the most graceful and well-handled boats ever built by Howard. She will run on the Mississippi river. The Jim Lee, another boat just built by Howard, is expected to pass down this week or next.

MILITARY COMPANY.

Many Names are Being Secured of Those Who Desire to Enlist in the Company.

The new military company for Paducah is forming, and a large number of names have been secured by Mr. Tom Jackson and the other young men who are soliciting recruits. No one is being enlisted, the names taken being simply of those who desire to become members. It is thought that by tomorrow the sanction of the Governor will be secured, and then regular enlistment will begin.

PAY TRAIN.

Five L. C. Boys Receive Their Money for the Past Month.

The pay train on the Illinois Central arrived this afternoon and most of the men will be paid off by this evening. The stores will accordingly be opened tonight and tomorrow night.

MEDICAL SOCIETY

Meets Tomorrow Night With Dr. Harry Williamson.

The Paducah Medical and Surgical society will meet tomorrow night with Dr. Harry Williamson, on Broadway. The discussion will be on "Polypus of the Uterus," and an interesting meeting is anticipated.

HOUSE ROBBED.

Mr. H. J. Fopp's Larder Raided of Its Contents Last Night.

The residence of Mr. H. J. Fopp, at 316 North Third street, was visited by sneak thieves last night. At this morning's auction, and at the provisions that could be found were taken. Nothing else was molested.

but one trial of the case. Judge Sanders' stated when shown the above that he had beaten to count over similar claims so many times that he had no fear of the above. The claims are trivial, anyhow, and do not amount to a great deal.

Officer Fred Hoyer is now on the river front beat, down at the wharf, to watch the heartless teamsters. His old beat at the Union depot being filled by Market Master Logan, who formerly had the river front beat after market hours.

The supervisors of the city tax books will finish their work tomorrow and adjourn. Quite a number of raises as well as reductions have been made.

The Little Rock & Memphis railroad will be sold today under foreclosure decree at Little Rock, Ark. The L. & N. Divisions Central, Cotton Belt and Kansas City, Pittsburg & Gulf railroads have all been spoken of as possible purchasers.

FRANK CONVICTED.

Given Three in the Penitentiary

By the Circuit Court—Perkins Case Taken Up Next.

Frank was one of a gang of alleged shoplifters. The other cases to be tried.

The jury in the case against Sam Frank, charged with shoplifting, returned a verdict this forenoon, after being out for half an hour, at 11:30 o'clock, finding him guilty as charged, and fixing his punishment at 3 years in the penitentiary. This was the first case of the day against what is known as the Frank gang, which is five in number. There are A. L. and Sam Frank, Pete Griffin, J. W. Perkins, and Kid Carroll. They have all been in jail for nearly a year, and Carroll came near escaping once, by feigning illness, and being sent to the poor house by the circuit judge at the recommendation of the county physician. He was at the "Y" ready to catch the first train when caught and remanded to jail. The gang is charged with systematic and wholesale stealing from many stores.

The verdict this morning would indicate that the whole gang is doomed, as the evidence is said to be really as strong in the other cases. The case against J. W. Perkins is now on trial, being called just before noon. Frank heard the verdict with stolid indifference, and was earned back to jail unaffected by the damning penitentiary. Lawrence Carnot waived trial for a breach of the peace and was fined $50 and costs.

The malicious cutting case against Willie Ellithorpe was set for the 17th day of the term.

John Mary Jane City filed suit for divorce against Bedford City, alleging cruel treatment. She was formerly Miss Morris, and asks to be restored to the rights of an unmarried woman and for $1,000 alimony.

John F. Hawkins was excused as a grand juror and T. H. Young substituted. T. J. Etter and A. Butts were excused from the petit jury and H. C. Reuck and S. E. Potter substituted.

The grand jury was holding a session this morning, and the probabilities are today that it will adjourn tomorrow. All the jail cases have been disposed of and there is little left for them to do.

SIS WAS LOADED.

She Pulled a Government License on the Officers.

Was Brought Here From Fulton By the Deputy U. S. Marshal This Morning.

Sis Davis, a capulant female of dusky hue, was brought in this morning from Hickman by Deputy U. S. Marshal L. A. Rice on a charge of selling liquor without a license. She had been suspected of such things for some time, but had never been caught before. She was immediately arraigned before Commissioner Puryear and given a preliminary hearing. The festive female was loaded for Uncle Sam's minions, however, and promptly produced a government license to sell fire water. This was a great surprise, but the officers remanded her to jail the same and began looking up the law.

This afternoon an order was issued by Commissioner Puryear, ordering her released, and she was permitted to return to her native land and resume the sale of light inspiration to the thirsty denizens of Fulton county.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

BICYCLES $25.00-$75.00

Chief Woods Has a New Horse.

The Truck to Be Repaired.

One of the Old Horses Swapped for Marshall Collins' Shavings.

Shavings.

This will be advertised, for at once to repair the latter truck at Central Fire station. New wheels will be put on, new axles made, and the ladders will be given a general overhauling. The city hall will soon have to buy a new horse, and the following year a new truck, hence it is deemed expedient to now make only necessary repairs. The amount of work done will not exceed $50.

Fire Chief Woods has purchased a new horse. It was bought in Bardonia, a day or two ago, and is a young horse of great promise. It is worth about $100, and will be taken to the South Side station. The antiquated gray horse, Harry, that had not been used for some time, has been swapped for the gray mare formerly owned by the late Deputy Jailor Grady, and which cost him his life. Marshall Collins was the owner.

The shaving pile near the back singletree factory, on South Third street, which caught fire last week is still burning, and the fire department was called there again yesterday to work on it. The rain has partially subdued the flames, but they still continue to eat their way into the shavings.

Chief Woods has several other horses to trade, among them being three from the city power house. They are all good horses, and can be easily exchanged for the kind required at the power house.

FOUND AT LAST.

A Long-Lost Husband Turns Up Near Memphis—Had Been Gone for Months.

A Wife and Mother Shipped to Him Today. He Could Not Speak English.

Mrs. Zies and her two or three children were today shipped to Memphis. The unhappy family has been a burden to the city and the charitable institutions all winter, and the cheapest way to get out of supporting them all summer besides was to ship them. Mrs. Zies expects to see her husband when she reaches Memphis. There is an interesting story connected with the case. The early part of last winter her husband, who had been working for the railroad company, left for Arizona to make a home for his family. He left them temporarily provided for, but their provisions soon gave out, and they were left without resources and thrown on the charity of strangers. It happened that the husband could not speak a word of English, being German. Instead of being carried to his destination, he was imposed on by somebody and carried several hundred miles away from his destination. He was soon stranded and his wife could not learn a word of his whereabouts. The Howard, the city and the county all contributed to the destitute family's support. They were cared for during the past winter, and a few days ago heard from husband and father, who was down about Memphis, where he had worked his way. The family left this afternoon for their new home.
